

Find a Mentor Today

Choose a mentor based on their profile match with your interests. Set up a time to talk on the phone or meet over coffee. If you feel it is a good match, discuss the possibility of continuing the mentoring relationship and meet once a month or more. It is up to you to take the initiative that will help guide your career.

"As a first generation college student, I found a mentor to guide me in the transition from SRJC to a four year university. With their help, I'm pursuing my transfer degree and found an internship in my field to help me gain real world experience."

- Maria C., SRJC Student

Do you have college or career questions? Get help from an SRJC mentor!

"What major or certificate should I pursue?"

"What does a career path in this field look like?"

"Is a job in this industry right for me?"

"How important is graduate school to my career success?"

Do you have questions like these and wish you had someone to talk to about them? Connect with a mentor in SRJC's Mentoring Program and find the answers!

The SRJC Mentoring Program is a self-selection process. SRJC students can connect with alumni and community members to answer questions about majors, careers, transfer, life challenges and more.

With over 125 volunteers from various backgrounds and in different stages of their careers, mentors have valuable knowledge to share with you.
